

Leave Indiana's Do Not Call List the way it is please. If there is a way to make it even harder and more difficult for telemarketers to call me – that would be better than loosening restrictions.